Only a quiet day was observed in Salt Lake today. Owing to the anticipation of a holiday, the proprietors of the stores and shops were prepared for a day of business. The streets were thronged with people, and the shops were filled with customers. The day was a success for the merchants, and the public was well served.

The sixth grade of the Whittier school presented an "army" to the school on Monday. The "army" consisted of a large number of soldiers, and the children were dressed in military uniforms. The performance was a success, and the children were well received by the audience.

The advisory committee of the first grade met with Mrs. L. J. Smith on Thursday last, and considered the course of study for the next year. The committee was composed of Mrs. L. J. Smith, Mrs. M. J. Smith, and Mrs. N. J. Smith. They discussed the various subjects to be taught, and decided on a course of study for the next year.

The following programme was rendered by the Oro society of the Lincoln school on Friday evening. The programme consisted of a play, "The Life of John Wesley," and a song, "The Christian's Duty." The performance was a success, and the audience was well entertained.

The entertainment given by the pupils of the Jackson school on Friday evening, was a great success. The pupils of the school turned out in great numbers, and the following programme was given: "The Story of the Bible," "The Life of Jesus Christ," and "The Christian's Duty." The performance was a success, and the audience was well entertained.

The Whittier school has four beautiful new pictures, "The Life of Jesus Christ," "The Christian's Duty," "The Story of the Bible," and "The Life of John Wesley." The pictures were painted by the pupils of the school, and are a credit to their art work. The pictures are now on display in the school building, and are well received by the public.

Fire at Sacramento, Cal.

Sacramento, Cal., April 20.—A special to the Bee from Keswick says: Fifteen business houses on North Main street were burned this morning, the first of a circle being among them. The fire burned from the Brewery saloon south to John Miller's place north. Total loss, $30,000, not one cent's insurance. There was no wind blowing at the time, or more of the town would have gone.
